UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
Endowed with 40,000 acres of land in 1784 and chartered in 1785, the charter was the first granted by a state for a government controlled university. After Louisville and then Greensboro were first selected, the current site was chosen.
The first president, and author of the school's charter, Abraham Baldwin, resigned when the doors opened, and was succeeded by Josiah Meigs. The University first began to thrive under Moses Waddel, who became president in 1819. Alonzo Church was president in 1829-1859.
During the War for Southern Independence, most of the students entered the Confederate Army. The University closed its doors in 1864, and did not open again until January 1866. After the war, many Confederate veterans became students.
Famous pre-war professors were John and Joseph LeConte and Charles F. McCay, while famous students were Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, Howell Cobb, and Crawford W. Long.
Plans for a modern university were first developed by Walter B. Hill and realized under Harmon W. Caldwell. The best known of the post-war presidents (now chancellors) was David C. Barrow. The builder of the modern plant was Chancellor Steadman V. Sanford.

UGA transformed Stegeman Coliseum with two major renovations costing more than $20 million combined to give the arena at 21st century face lift...and has spent additional millions in the past several years.

FANS FLOCK TO THE STEG:

Georgia Basketball broke its all-time total attendance record for Stegeman Coliseum during both the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons. In 2019-20, the Bulldogs' home average of 9,651 was the second-highest in school history as Georgia drew a schol-record 11 crowds of 10,000-plus fans at Stegeman.

STEGEMAN UPDATES:

- In 2010, a $13-million renovation upgraded Stegeman's concourse and added 10,000-square feet of space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won multiple awards including from the American Institute of Architects.
- In 2016-17, an $8-million investment enhanced the Coliseum's court and seating areas and added 1000-square feet of HD video and nearly 3000-square feet of LED scoreboard sections.
- During Mike White's tenure, athletic training and strength & condititioning facilities have been added to Stegeman Coliseum, creating more than 7000-square feet of basketball-specific space.
- Future plans for Stegeman include installing a 7000-square-foot video board on the arena's distinctive end wall.

NOTABLE NUMERALS

39 Anthony Edwards became Georgia's 39th all-time NBA Draft pick when he was taken No. 1 overall by Minnesota in 2020.

11 UGA drew a school-record 11 crowds topping the 10,000 plateau during the 2019-20 home schedule at Stegeman Coliseum.

97 Georgia Bulldog basketball players have combined to be earn All-SEC 97 accolades during the conference's history.

27 Georgia has earned bids to postseason play 27 times, with all of those coming last 40 seasons. The 1983 Final Four is UGA's best showing.

120 UGA's practice facility, which is adjacent to Stegeman Coliseum, is one of the nation's largest with 120,000 square feet.

90 The SEC Network is the most successful of all college sports TV ventures and was available in 90 million homes when it launched in 2014.

COVERING THE BULLDOGS

The 2024-25 Georgia Basketball Guide was prepared specifically to assist members of the media covering the Bulldogs. Any specific requests beyond the information in this publication – interviews, credentials, photography, etc. – should be directed to:

MOBLEY

Mike Mobley,
Assistant AD
UGA Sports Communications
email: mmobley@sports.uga.edu

OFFICE PHONE:	(706) 542-1621
CELL PHONE:	(706) 540-7486

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Georgia's home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Credentials are issued on a priority basis. All requests should be made via the SportsSystems online credentialing site.

Passes will be mailed when time allows. Other single-game credentials will be left at Media Will Call, which is located inside Gate A on the Smith Street side of the arena (see map on Page 9).

A limited number of parking passes will also be issued to media who cover the majority of UGA's home games. Media parking is in the Coverdell Lot, located off Smith Street behind the Coliseum Training Facility (see map on Page 9). In addition, parking in the Carlton Street deck, which is actually closer to Media Will Call than the Coverdell Lot, is free of charge for media and fans.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with coaches and players will be conducted before practice on pre-determined dates. These opportunities will be conducted in person in the Taylor Room of the Coliseum Practice Facility. Unless the calendar necessitates a change, these availabilities will take place the day before each home game. As much advance notice as possible will be given for these dates and times. Please contact Mike Mobley in the Sports Communications office for assistance.

PRACTICES

Georgia's practice sessions are generally closed to the media. Upon request, videographers and photographers may be allowed to shoot a pre-determined portion at the beginning of some practices.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Stegeman Coliseum's press facilities are outlined in the diagram to the following page.

The press room is located through Portal 3 and is equipped with wireless and ethernet internet access. A room with similar capabilities is available for photographers adjacent to the press room.

Credentialed media will be supplied with a voucher which can be redeemed at any Stegeman Coliseum concessions stands for a pregame meal. Vouchers can not be used for alcoholic beverages.

Press seating is located above Portal 2 in section K of the Coliseum's lower bowl. Radio broadcast positions are at the scorer's table, while TV announce locations are at center court opposite the scorer's table.

Complete first-half and final box scores will be provided, as will final game books with the aforementioned as well as first- and second-half play-by-plays, first- and second-half shot charts and post-game notes and quotes.

INTERNET ACCESS

Media wishing to obtain high-speed Internet access may log on via either through wireless or hard-wired ethernet method. Both are available in the media seating area and the working press room within the Coliseum. Please see a member of the UGA Sports Communications office to obtain information on how to access the University network.

IN-GAME STATISTICS

Media covering Georgia home games can view a running statistical account on a web browser by logging onto: uga.statbroadcast.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those accredited photographers working on assignment will be issued sideline credentials. Flashes and strobe units are prohibited unless permission has been granted. Photographers should shoot from the designated endzone locations. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

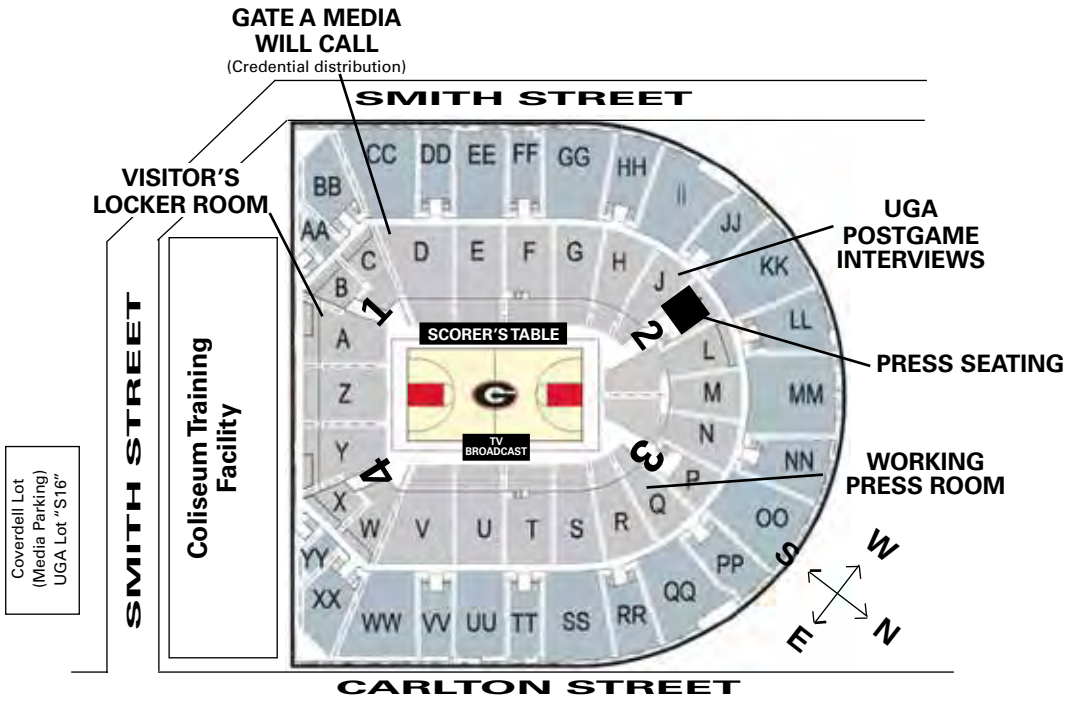
Photographers who wish to transmit their photos on-site are asked to use the room adjacent to the working press room. This area is specifically dedicated to the transmission of photography and provides greater work space.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following home games, Georgia head coach Mike White and two Bulldog players will be available for interviews in the press conference room accessible via Tunnel 2 of the playing floor.

Zoom sessions with Coach White also will be conducted following road games.

STEGEMAN COLISEUM PRESS FACILITIES DIAGRAM



Visiting teams will determine their own post-game procedure for available players. If those interviews are in person, most opponents choose to conduct those interviews outside their locker room. The location is through Portal 1 of the Coliseum playing floor and through the double-doors to the left at the end of the hallway.

Christened in 1963 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Stegeman has recently undergone thorough a series of major renovations, receiving a 21st Century face lift. In 2017, fans walked in to the final product following more than $20-million in renovations over several years.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a remarkable makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000-square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

During the summer of 2017, the arena received a massive center-hung scoreboard, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in 2016 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

THE GEORGIA BULLDOG RADIO NETWORK

The best and broadest exposure possible for UGA basketball comes from the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network, a joint venture between Learfield College and JMI Sports. Not only with its vast number of affiliates but also from its powerful flagship station AM 750 in Atlanta, the network gives coverage to Bulldog hoops unmatched by any program nationwide.

Learfield provides radio network production for more than 50 major college athletic programs within the SEC and other prominent conferences across the United States.

The network flagship is News/Talk 750 WSB – Atlanta's 50,000-watt, clear-channel station – which provides coverage with a signal that reaches more than 35 states and Canada. Scott Howard and Chuck Dowdle will again handle the play-by-play and color analyst duties, respectively. Coach Mike White can also be heard on weeknights during the season on the Bulldog Hotline, heard over most of the network stations.

Scott Howard (right) and Chuck Dowdle will work their 13th season together in 2024-25.

SCOTT HOWARD

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia sports and in particular, with Bulldog football and basketball. Howard returns for his 30th season behind the microphone at Georgia basketball games. First a color analyst with legendary voice Larry Munson, Howard will be working his 26th season as the Bulldogs' primary play-by-play announcer.

Howard was the sports director at Athens radio stations WNGC-WGAU for 14 years before joining IMG Sports in 2009.

A 1984 Georgia graduate, Howard began his association with Bulldog football as a color analyst alongside Munson in 1994. In 2007, he broadcasted play-by-play action in all of Georgia's road football games, and the next season he became the program's primary radio voice by the third game. Howard was also play-by-play announcer for Georgia baseball from 1990-96.

CHUCK DOWDLE

Native Atlantan Chuck Dowdle, one of the most prominent figures in the Atlanta sports scene, will return to the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network for the his 13th season as color analyst for basketball broadcasts.

Dowdle retired from WSB-TV in 2009 after 24 years as weeknight sports anchor with the top-rated station. Dowdle also worked for WPLG in Miami from 1973-85. During that time, he hosted the Don Shula TV Show and also announced football for the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Hurricanes, as well as the NASL's Ft. Lauderdale Strikers.

During his time at WSB, Dowdle was involved with almost every aspect of Atlanta sports, from announcing Falcons' preseason games to hosting UGA football and basketball coaches' shows. He was also the host of "High-Q", a game show pitting some of the Atlanta region's brightest high-school students against one another in academic competition.

Dowdle attended UGA in his freshman year, where he played for the basketball team. He then transferred to Georgia State, where he was a pitcher for the baseball team in his junior and senior years, before graduating in 1972.

ADAM GILLESPIE

After serving as the back-up producer/engineer for the Georgia Radio Network for one season, Adam Gillespie took over in a full-time role beginning with the 2020-21 campaign.

An Athens native who attended high school in Augusta, Gillespie joined the production staff at 680 The Fan in Atlanta in 2005. His role expanded to include producing the postgame show on the Atlanta Braves Network when the stationed the team's broadcast rights in 2010. That same year, 680 became the official sports-talk partner of Georgia Athletics and Gillespie began producing Bulldog Roundtable, the station's 30-minute show devoted exclusively to UGA Athletics which airs on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

It was a different type of Selection Sunday for Georgia Basketball in 2022. While the college basketball universe was focused on the release of the NCAA Tournament bracket for "March Madness," Georgia made significant waves in the news cycle just as the selection show was ending by announcing Mike White as the Bulldogs' new head coach at 7:54 p.m. ET.

"I am beyond excited for the opportunity to lead the men's basketball program at the University of Georgia," White stated. "I believe in the limitless future of Georgia Basketball."

White, who averaged more than 22 wins per season in 11 campaigns as head coach at Florida and Louisiana Tech, was named the 23rd head men's basketball coach of the Georgia Bulldogs on March 13, 2022. White owns the unique distinction of being named Coach of the Year in three different conferences, securing 2017 SEC, 2015 Conference USA and 2014 WAC honors.

During his first two seasons in Athens, White's teams have displayed consistent and impressive improvement. From the traditional sports information standpoint, you might read something like:

In White's first season, the Bulldogs upped their regular-season win total by double digits from the 2021-22 campaign, producing the second-largest increase among all Power conference programs. Last year, Georgia earned its first postseason bid since 2017 and while advancing to the NIT semifinals reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2016.

However, the Bulldogs' growth from a quantifiably measurable standpoint is even more dramatic.

From the 2021-22 season before White arrived to his second campaign at Georgia, the Bulldogs have ascended an average of 136 spots among six of the most popular basketball metrics as outlined to the right.

The immediate future looks even brighter. In 2023, Georgia's freshman and transfer recruiting classes were ranked among the top 20 nationally. A year later, both groups were featured among the nation's top 10. Combined, White and his staff have signed six top-100 prep prospects in the last two classes.

White's entire basketball career has been a model of consistent winning and postseason play.

In seven seasons at Florida before his arrival in Athens, he compiled a 142-88 record while leading the Gators to six postseason bids including four NCAA appearances. In four campaigns at Louisiana Tech between 2011-15, White's Bulldogs compiled a 101-40 record, won a trio of conference regular-season titles and advanced to three NITs.

As a head coach, nine of his 13 teams reached the 20-win mark, while four notched 27 or more victories. White's squads advanced to postseason play during 10 of 12 possible seasons. During another, when the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled due to COVID-19, the Gators were a consensus pick for a single-digit NCAA seed.

White's teams have made solid usage of the opportunities afforded them. Georgia's trek to the 2024 NIT semifinals included impressive road victories at Wake Forest and Ohio State in a three-day span. Florida was one of only six programs nationally to win a game during each of the four NCAA Tournaments contested between 2017-21, headlined by a trip to the 2017 "Elite Eight." At Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs won three conference titles – 2013 WAC and 2014 and 2015 Conference USA – and advanced to the NIT quarterfinals in both 2014 and 2015.

White helped five more teams reach 20 wins during his 11 campaigns as an assistant and associate head coach at Ole Miss and Jacksonville State, with the Rebels capturing a pair of SEC West titles. Ole Miss appeared in four NITs during his seven seasons, reaching the semifinals in both 2008 and 2010.

As a player, White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss, including SEC West title teams in 1997 and 1998. He helped the Rebels string together three-consecutive 20-wins seasons from 1997-99, with each culminating with an NCAA Tournament bid – both firsts in program history. White fondly lists his proudest achievement as a player as dribbling out the clock of the Rebels' 72-70 victory over Villanova in 1999 to give Ole Miss its first-ever "March Madness" victory.

Totaling up the aforementioned, White has been a part of 17 20-win teams during his 28 seasons as a college basketball player and coach, capturing seven regular-season conference regular-season titles and earning 18 postseason bids.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL IN GAINESVILLE

Florida earned postseason bids in every season under White, reaching the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, becoming the only SEC program to qualify for four consecutive NCAAs from 2017-21 and advancing to the second round of the 2022 NIT.

From an accolades standpoint, White was voted as 2017 SEC Coach of the Year by both league coaches and the Associated Press after Florida finished second in the league and reached the NCAA "Elite Eight." He also was honored as the District Coach of the Year by the NABC and USWBA that season. In addition, Canyon Berry was tabbed 2017 SEC Sixth Man of the Year, seven different Gators were named All-SEC a combined eight times, three players were named to the SEC All-Freshman team and two were selected for the SEC All-Defensive unit during White's tenure.

Florida recorded 21 wins during White's first campaign in Gainesville, matching the program record for a first-year head coach.

White led Florida to the "Elite Eight" and 27 victories during his second season, just the eighth time in program history the Gators won as many games. In addition, White's two-season tally of 48 wins ranked as the fourth-most in SEC history. Simultaneously, White and his staff also put together a 2017 recruiting class ranked ninth nationally by ESPN that included three top-10 prospects.

In 2017-18, Florida tied for the most wins over top-25 teams nationally, knocking off six ranked foes. The Gators followed that with a late-season surge in 2018-19. After starting 12-11, Florida finished 20-16 and pulled two more ranked upsets in SEC and NCAA Tournament play.

White collected his 100th win at Florida during 2019-20. His pace of 158 games to reach that milestone was second-fastest in program history only to Billy Donovan's 154 contests.

The Gators continued their streak of reaching – and winning – during "March Madness" in 2021, which was even more impressive considering Keyontae Johnson, the Preseason SEC Player of the Year, suffered a medical emergency in the fourth game of the season and did not return to action.

A RECORD-SETTING PACE AT LOUISIANA TECH

At Louisiana Tech, White produced the best winning percentage (.716) of any coach in the program's history as he led the Bulldogs to the Western Athletic Conference regular-season crown in 2013 before winning back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2014 and 2015. The Bulldogs reached the NIT in each of those campaigns and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2014 and 2015. In NIT play, Louisiana Tech recorded a trio of impressive road victories, toppling Florida State in 2013, Georgia in 2014 and Texas A&M in 2015.

White was named WAC Coach of the Year in 2013 and Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2015. He coached the 2015 C-USA Player of the Year, two WAC Newcomers of the Year, the 2014 C-USA Sixth Man of the Year and the 2014 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, four Bulldogs combined to earn nine All-Conference certificates during that span.

White's most impressive coaching effort in Ruston may have been with his first team. Louisiana Tech started 8-10 before going 10-6 the rest of the way and advancing to the championship game of the WAC Tournament. The Bulldogs then went 83-24 over the next three seasons under White.

FROM PRO PLAYER TO STUDENT TO ASSISTANT COACH

White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss and helped the Rebels to a pair of SEC West titles, three NCAA Tournament appearances and the school's first-ever "March Madness" victory. He also earned a spot on two SEC Academic Honor Rolls and was named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team.

After being invited to the Utah Jazz's summer training camp, White spent the 1999-2000 season playing professionally for the IBL's New Mexico Slam and in England before returning to Ole Miss in the spring of 2000 to complete his B.A. in business. The day after his last Final Exam, White made the four-hour drive from Oxford to Jacksonville, Ala., to begin his coaching career at Jacksonville State the next day – literally.

White spent four years at Jacksonville State and helped the Gamecocks secure their first-ever 20-win season in 2003. He then returned to his alma mater and spent seven successful seasons while developing a reputation as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. White helped the Rebels to four NIT berths, including two runs to the NIT Final Four, and SEC West titles in 2007 and 2010.

BORN AND MARRIED INTO ATHLETIC FAMILIES

Though he was born in Dunedin, Fla., White lived all around the U.S. as his father's career in athletic administration progressed. His dad, Kevin, was the Athletic Director at Duke from 2008 until he retired at the end of August 2021 Previously, Kevin was AD at Loras College (1982-87), Maine (1987-91), Tulane (1991-96), Arizona State (1996-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-08).

Both of Mike's brothers and one of his sisters have also excelled in college athletics administration. Danny became the AD at Tennessee in 2021 after serving in the same role at Buffalo from 2012-15 and UCF from 2015-21. He played basketball at Towson and Notre Dame. Brian has been the AD at Florida Atlantic since 2018. He was Deputy AD for external relations at Missouri before moving to Boca Raton. Mariah (Chappell), who swam collegiately at Duke, was Assistant AD for Administration at SMU, where she worked from 2017-23.

White is married to the former Kira Zschau, who was an All-SEC volleyball player at Ole Miss and also has a law degree from Ole Miss. They have five children – two daughters, Rylee and Maggie; twin boys, Collin and Keegan; and another son, Dillon.

ANTONIO REYNOLDS DEAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • 3RD SEASON • RHODE ISLAND '99

Atlanta native Antonio Reynolds Dean was named Associate Head Coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on April 12, 2022. From his time as a standout post player at one of Georgia's premier high school programs to the anchor of the winningest class in his college alma mater's history to stops throughout his coaching career, Reynolds Dean's career has consistently featured winning teams and postseason play.

That trend has continued in Athens as last season Georgia earn its first postseason bid since 2017. While advancing to the NIT semifinals, the Bulldogs notched their first 20-win campaign since 2016.

Dean spent five seasons at Clemson from 2017-22, helping the Tigers to a pair of NCAA Tournament bids and an NIT appearance. He also helped coach Rhode Island to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2017 and Northeastern to a pair of NIT invites in 2010 and 2013.

In his first season at Clemson, the Tigers equaled the school record for victories, posting a 25-10 mark and advancing to the "Sweet 16" round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament for the first time in more than two decades. Clemson reached the NIT's round of 16 and finished 20-14 in 2019, just the sixth time in school history the Tigers recorded back-to-back 20-win campaigns. Clemson earned another invitation to "March Madness" in 2021 when the Tigers tied for fifth in the ACC standings.

Individually, the Tigers' post players thrived under Reynolds Dean. In 2020, Aamir Simms averaged career highs and team bests of 13.0 points and 7.2 rebounds and also led the Tigers in assists and blocks. In 2021, he repeated leading Clemson in points (13.4 ppg), rebounds (6.4 rpg) and assists – the only player ever in ACC history to do so twice. Elijah Thomas was named to the ACC's All-Defensive team in 2018 and 2019.

Reynolds Dean spent two years as an assistant coach at Rhode Island, where he also was one of the Rams' greatest players ever. In his final season on the staff, the Rams finished 25-10 overall and won the Atlantic-10 Tournament title, their first since his Reynolds Dean's senior year in 1999. The Rams then defeated Creighton in the NCAA Tournament before falling to Oregon, an eventual Final Four participant, 75-72 in the round of 32. While Reynolds Dean was at Rhode Island, he worked with Hassan Martin, the A-10 Defensive Player of the Year in both 2016 and 2017.

Prior to his stint at Rhode Island, Reynolds Dean was an assistant coach at the College of Charleston for the 2014-15 season and at Northeastern for five campaigns from 2009-14. Reynolds Dean helped lead Northeastern to the 2013 CAA regular-season title and bids to the 2010 and 2013 NITs. He spent 2008-09 at Fairfield as the Director of Basketball Operations.

As a player, Reynolds Dean was a two-time all-state performer at Atlanta's Frederick Douglass High. He averaged a double-double during each of those seasons, scoring 24.6 points and 15.5 rebounds as a senior after contributing 23.0 points and 13.0 boards as a junior.

Reynolds Dean enjoyed a standout career at Rhode Island, where he was the 1996 Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year and an All-Atlantic 10 selection in 1999. He helped lead the Rams to 85 wins over four seasons, including a then-school record 25 victories in 1998. Rhode Island earned three NCAA Tournament bids during his career, highlighted by a trip to the 1998 "Elite Eight."

Reynolds Dean became just the third player in school history to record 1,000 points and rebounds. Among career leaders, he wrapped up his eligibility as the school record holder for games played (131) and also ranked No. 9 in points (1,576), No. 3 in rebounds (1,028) and No. 2 in blocks (235).

A 2015 inductee into the URI Athletic Hall of Fame, Reynolds Dean is the only person in Rhode Island men's basketball history to play on and coach for an Atlantic 10 Championship team.

Professionally, Reynolds Dean averaged 18.7 points and a league-leading 12.2 rebounds with the Dakota Wizards of the International Basketball League (IBL) in 1999-2000. After being named the IBL's Rookie of the Year in 2000, he played eight seasons overseas in Spain and Argentina.

Reynolds Dean earned a bachelor's degree in Education with an emphasis in Human Development and Family Studies from Rhode Island in 1999 and secured a master's in Sports Leadership from Northeastern in 2012. Reynolds Dean is married for the former Donna Carr, who played volleyball for Georgia in the 1990s. He is the proud father of two daughters, Jasmine and Naomi.

Erik Pastrana (pronounced puh-strah-nuh) was named an assistant coach at Georgia on March 28, 2022. He spent the 2021-22 season on Mike White's staff at Florida and also has successful Division I coaching stints at Oklahoma State, Florida Atlantic, Florida International and Stephen F. Austin.

Pastrana has played a pivotal role in Georgia's success over the past two seasons. He helped the Bulldogs up their regular-season win total by 10 victories from 2021-22 to 2022-23, the second largest increase of any Power conference program. Last year, Georgia earned its first postseason invitation since 2017 and then reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2016.

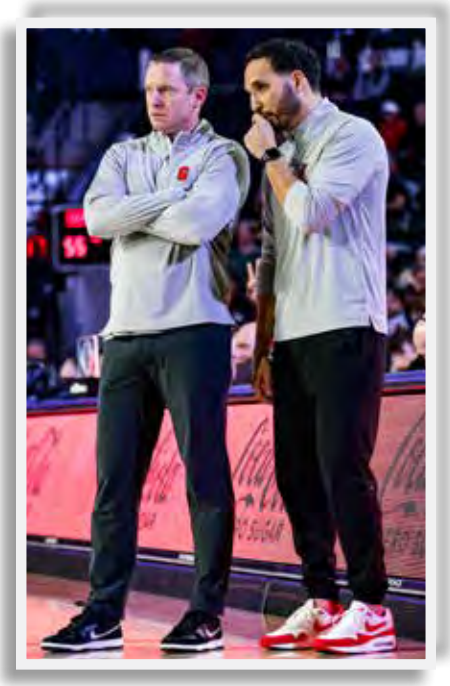
During his season at Florida, the Gators went 20-14 and reached the second round of the 2022 NIT.

Pastrana spent the two seasons prior to that as an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. He helped the Cowboys sign the No. 4 recruiting class in 2020 that included Cade Cunningham, the 2021 Big 12 Player of the Year and a first-team All-American who went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft.

In 2021, the Cowboys advanced to the finals of the Big 12 Tournament, earned a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 11 by the Associated Press – all firsts since 2005. Oklahoma State's first-round win in the NCAA Tournament was its first since 2009.

Prior to his stint in Stillwater, Pastrana coached at three schools in Florida, his home state. In 2018-19, he was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic working under Dusty May, one of three former Mike White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches. Pastrana was head coach at Daytona State College for the 2017-18 season, where he led the Falcons to a 19-12 record and had four players named to the Mid-Florida All-Conference Team. A Miami native and Cuban American who is a member of the Latino Association of Basketball Coaches, Pastrana spent the 2016-17 campaign in his hometown as an assistant coach at FIU.

Pastrana also was an assistant coach for three seasons at Stephen F. Austin. During his tenure, the Lumberjacks won three consecutive Southland Conference Championships, produced three straight Southland Players of the Year and earned NCAA Tournament victories over VCU in 2014 and West Virginia in 2016. The 89 wins that staff accrued tied for the most by any coaching staff in its first three campaigns in NCAA history.



Pastrana began his career as a graduate assistant under Frank Martin at Kansas State from 2007-09. While at K-State, the Wildcats won 21 games each season, earned a pair of postseason bids, notched their first NCAA Tournament win in a decade in 2008 and saw freshman Michael Beasley selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2008 NBA Draft.

Following his experience with the Wildcats, Pastrana worked as an assistant coach at Labette Community College in Kansas and Northwest Florida State College. At NWFSC, Pastrana helped lead the Raiders to a 30-4 record and an appearance in the NJCAA National Championship game.

Pastrana earned a bachelor's degree in history from Florida State in 2007 and a master's degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2009. Pastrana is engaged to marry Brooke Di Orio in May 2025.

ANTHONY GOINS

ASSISTANT COACH • 1ST SEASON • ST. JOHN'S '08

Anthony Goins, who has a consistent history of winning basketball at every stop in his coaching career, was named assistant coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on May 24, 2024.

Prior to his arrival in Athens, Goins spent the past three seasons at Boston College. He also sports stints on the staffs at Clemson, Quinnipiac, Yale and Dartmouth over the last 11 years.

"I couldn't be more excited to join Georgia Basketball," Goins said. "Coach White and his staff have done an unbelievable job building the Georgia program the past two years. I could feel the energy and momentum the moment I got on campus. I'm extremely appreciative of Coach White for giving me the opportunity. Coach Grant, the staff and everyone around Boston College have been unbelievable the past three years, but I can't wait to get to work in Athens!"

Boston College has increased its win total during each of Goins' season with the Eagles, culminating with a 20-16 finish and a bid to the NIT in 2024. Boston College reached the round of 16 in the NIT and in the process secured the Eagles' first 20-win campaign and first postseason victory since 2011.

Goins was an assistant coach at Clemson for two seasons from 2019-21, helping the Tigers secure a bid to the 2021 NCAA Tournament. While at Clemson, he oversaw the development of the Tigers' backcourt standouts Tevin Mack, Al-Amir Dawes and Nick Honor.

From 2017-19, Goins was on the staff at Quinnipiac. During the 2018-19 season, the Bobcats finished 16-15 to notch their first winning record in five years. Quinnipiac also received a bid to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) in 2019, just QU's fifth postseason appearance ever. Goins helped to develop three all-conference guards for the Bobcats, including first-team All-MAAC selection Cameron Young.

Goins enjoyed a trio of successful seasons at Yale from 2014-17. The Bulldogs finished 22-10 overall and 11-3 in his year in New Haven to secure the Bulldogs' first Ivy League title since 2002. Yale improved to 23-7 overall and 13-1 in league play during the 2015-16 campaign, both school-record win totals. The Bulldogs won the Ivy League championship outright to garner the program's first NCAA Tournament bid in 54 years. Yale, a No. 12 seed, then upset fifth-seeded Baylor in first round of "March Madness," the first NCAA victory ever for the Bulldogs.

Goins' collegiate career began at Dartmouth in 2013-14, where he helped the Big Green to their highest win total in 15 seasons.

Goins also spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Salisbury Prep School in Connecticut, which compiled a combined 64-18 record during his tenure.

Originally from Greensboro, N.C., Goins graduated from Oscar Smith High School in Chesapeake, Va. He received his bachelor's degree in Sports Management from St. John's in 2008. While an undergrad, Goins served as a practice player for the men's team and helped with women's practices as well.

Goins and his wife, Stephanie, have two children: a son, Anthony "Trey"; and a daughter, Reese.

Patrick Blake joined the Georgia Bulldogs in the summer of 2023 as an assistant coach after enjoying success at every stop of his 13-year college coaching career.

Most recently, Blake served as an assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky from 2019-23 and at Coastal Carolina from 2015-19. During his tenure, both programs established their single-season records for points scored. Blake also enjoyed a stellar run at Chipola College, including leading the Indians to the "Elite Eight" of the 2014 NJCAA Tournament.

Blake helped Eastern Kentucky become one of the nation's highest scoring teams in his final three seasons. The Colonels paced their conference in scoring offense in each of those years, finishing eighth nationally in 2020-21 (81.8 ppg) in EKU's final season in the Ohio Valley Conference. EKU led the Atlantic Sun offensively in both 2021-22 (79.3 ppg) and 2022-23 (78.6 ppg).

Blake played an integral role in Eastern Kentucky signing its highest rated group of recruits in the internet age in 2022. That class of Colonels ranked No. 65 nationally by 247Sports, higher than eight Power conference programs. The group included the EKU's first-ever ESPN four-star prospect and the program's first Kentucky Mr. Basketball since 1980.

The scoring and recruiting translated into winning by the Colonels. Eastern Kentucky led all Division I men's basketball teams in Kentucky with 23 victories in 2022-23 after notching 22 Ws in 2020-21.

During Blake's four seasons in Richmond, the Colonels reached the conference tournament semifinals three times. The 2022-23 season was especially gratifying after the Colonels were picked to finish 10th in the ASUN. Eastern Kentucky went on to reach the championship game of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), the first time in 78 years that EKU won three games in a national tourney.

Blake also spent four seasons at Coastal Carolina, helping the Chanticleers to a trio of postseason bids and an appearance in the CBI's championship series in 2016. In his first season in Conway, Coastal finished 21-12, earned the program's first national postseason victory and went on to reach the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) semifinals. The following year, the Chanticleers advanced to the CBI's championship series. Blake also helped Coastal Carolina back to the 2019 CBI, where the Chanticleers stunned West Virginia, 109-91, in Morgantown.

Blake's first full-time coaching stint was at Chipola College in Marianna, Fla., where he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before being promoted to head coach. In three campaigns as head coach, Blake compiled a record of 62-30 and was named the 2014 Panhandle Conference and State Coach of the Year. The Indians were a combined 46-10 with Blake as an assistant coach. In 2012, Chipola went 26-6 and as the No. 3 seed in the NJCAA Tournament reached the quarterfinals before falling to the eventual national champs, Jones County (Miss.) College.

Blake was a graduate assistant at Ole Miss from 2008-10 while Mike White was an assistant coach on the staff. That stint included a 23-4 finish by the Rebels in 2010 when they shared the SEC West Division title and reached the semifinals of the NIT.

Blake graduated from Louisville in 2009 with a bachelor's in Business Marketing. He was a student manager for the Cardinals for four seasons when they reached the NCAA Final Four in 2005, the NIT semifinals in 2006, the NCAA Round of 32 in 2007 and the NCAA Elite Eight in 2008.

A native of Evansville, Ind., Blake is married to the former Diana Truong. The couple has two sons, Reilly (3) and Brady (2).

BEN GONZALEZ

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
3RD SEASON • FLORIDA '17

Ben Gonzalez was named the Director of Operations for Georgia Basketball in April 2022.

Gonzalez arrived in Athens after spending the past four seasons in the same role at Florida Atlantic. He also was an undergraduate and graduate manager at Florida for three years during head coach Mike White's first three seasons with the Gators from 2015-18.

"I'm looking forward to working with Ben again," White said. "He was a tremendous student manager for us at UF and enjoyed breakthrough success at FAU. He's very driven and intense in his tasks."

"I am very honored and excited to be able to work for Coach White again," Gonzalez said. "I think of Coach White and many others on our staff as family, and I am grateful to be working with such high-quality people."

Gonzalez joined the FAU staff in 2018 shortly after the introduction of head coach Dusty May, one of three former White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches. Gonzalez's responsibilities at Georgia mirror his duties the Owls, where he managed the team's budget and travel, developed and organized itineraries for recruiting official visits and recruited and developed the team's student managers. In addition, he played a major role in the staging of summer team and individual camps.

While a student at Florida, Gonzalez worked with White during his first three seasons as the Gators' head coach. He spent two years as an undergraduate manager before serving as a graduate manager for the 2017-18 campaign. During that time, Florida recorded 68 wins, advancing to the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, the 2017 NCAA "Elite Eight" and the 2018 NCAA round of 32.

Gonzalez also was active in the UF Athletic Association's "Blue Shirt" marketing organization in 2014 and 2015. He aided with staging of ESPN's College GameDay and the Gators' "Link to Pink" breast cancer awareness initiative. Gonzalez also took part in the group's football project team that was tasked with developing ideas to enhance fan experience and spark excitement at the Gators' games

Since 2017, Gonzalez has been involved with the Uncommon Sports Group, a faith-based organization founded by former student managers designed to develop leaders in the sports industry. His activities include traveling to Liberia to help lead a three-week sports camp, representing the group at the men's Final Four to attract new members and leading a tour of FAU Athletics facilities for 15 participants selected for an "Impact Trip."

A native of Tampa, Fla., Gonzalez has two degrees from Florida. He earned his bachelor's in Sport Management in three years in 2017 and added a master's in Sport Management a year later. He married the former Alexandra "Alex" Emenecker in June 2022.

DARRYL HARDIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT
1ST SEASON • FLORIDA STATE '13

Darryl Hardin, who has built a reputation as a premier player development coach over the past decade, joined the Georgia Basketball Staff as Director of Player Development in July 2024.

Hardin spent the previous 11 years at the grass roots level of basketball in the Orlando, Fla., area. He founded and served as head coach for the highly successful 1Family Hoops program. Hardin also worked as a player development coach for Ghost Player Development and is widely known for his expertise with shooting improvements among his players.

In 2023, Hardin was honored by the Black Coaches Association's as a first-team selection in the BCA Circuit Coaching Awards. The BCA selected 10 coaches – five first team and five second team – from more than 5,000 youth development basketball programs nationwide for its awards.

Over the past decade plus, Hardin coached and helped develop more than 70 players who played NCAA basketball, including approximately 25 at the Power Conference level. The list of 1Family alums includes current Bulldogs Dylan James, Asa Newell and Jaden Newell and former Georgia players Tyree Crump, Jordan Harris and Amanze Ngumezi.

In addition, Hardin has mentored Division I standouts such as Nassir Little (North Carolina), Kai Jones (Texas), John Mooney (Notre Dame) and Isaiah Brown (Florida).

Hardin also has worked with more than 15 current and former NBA players with summer training sessions, a list headlined by the Indiana Pacers' Pascal Siakam, an NBA Champion, two-time NBA All-Star and two-time All-NBA selection, and Nikola Vucevic, a two-time NBA All-Star.

A native of Saint Petersburg, Fla., Hardin graduated from Saint Petersburg High, where he was a three-year letterwinner in basketball. Hardin also played one season of high school basketball at Northside Christian Academy.

Hardin earned bachelor's degrees in History and Child Development from Florida State in 2013. Darryl and his wife, Sara, have two children: a daughter Myla, born in 2018, and a son Kyrin, born in 2021.

CHARLES MANN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
3RD SEASON • GEORGIA '16

Charles Mann, one of the most successful players in Georgia history, returned to his alma mater as the Bulldogs' Director of Recruiting in April 2022.

"Charles knows what it takes to be a successful student-athlete at this level," head coach Mike White said. "He is extremely proud to be a Georgia Bulldog and in many ways has lived the experience we want for all of our players. I'm confident he'll make a major impact within our program."

Mann played in 132 games between 2012-16, the most ever by a four-year player, and is one of only 12 Bulldogs ever to play on three 20-win teams.

"It's a surreal feeling that still seems like a dream," Mann said. "Coming home means more than anything. It's not just the next job – it's my dream job."

Mann spent the three seasons at Army and VCU before coming to Athens.

In 2021-22, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cadets, who finished 15-16. He aided the development of Jalen Rucker, who averaged ranked fourth in the Patriot League in scoring (17.1 ppg), as well as second in 3-pointers, seventh in free throw percentage and ninth in assists.

Mann was a graduate assistant at VCU for two seasons, helping the Rams earn an at-large bid to the 2021 NCAA Tournament after finishing second in the Atlantic-10 and reaching the championship game of the A-10 Tournament.

Mann was selected by the Oklahoma City Blue in the second round of the 2016 NBA G-League Draft. He played in Canada in 2016-17 and averaged 15.0 points for Cape Breton before contributing 15.9 points for AB Contern in Luxembourg in 2017-18.

At Georgia, Mann started 106 of 132 games, including 98 of 100 over his final three seasons. He was named to the SEC's All-Freshman team in 2013 and was tabbed second-team All-SEC by league coaches in 2014.

Mann owns the Bulldogs' career records for free throws made (618) and attempted (896). He ranks second in SEC history in trips to the charity stripe – behind only "Pistol" Pete Maravich. Among Georgia's career leaders, Mann finished ranked No. 13 in scoring (1,411 points) and No. 5 in assists (400). He helped Georgia reach postseason play three times, with a trip to the 2015 NCAA Tourney between bids to the 2014 and 2016 NITs, and averaged 19.4 points over six NCAA and NIT contests.

Originally from Queens, N.Y., Mann was a three-time All-State performer in high school, earning second-team honors in Class 5A as a senior at Milton after securing honorable mention status in Class 4A as a sophomore and junior at Union Grove. As a senior, he helped Milton capture the 2012 Georgia 5A state title and earn a consensus top-10 finish nationally.

Mann earned his bachelor's degree in Housing Management and Policy from Georgia in 2016 and added a master's in Education for Sports Leadership from VCU in 2021.

RYAN McCLOSKEY

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & ANALYTICS
2ND SEASON • FLORIDA '16

Ryan McCloskey joined the Georgia Basketball staff in the summer of 2023 as the Bulldogs' Director of Video and Analytics. Prior to arriving in Athens, McCloskey garnered a wealth of experience during a combined decade of working at Rhode Island and Florida, as well as with USA Basketball.

McCloskey spent five seasons on the staff at Rhode Island from 2018-23. He served in a variety of roles during his tenure with the Rams. After originally joining the staff as video coordinator, McCloskey was promoted after one season to director of operations from 2019-21. He was again promoted to special assistant to the head coach during the 2021-22 campaign before serving as assistant director of operations/video coordinator for the Rams in 2022-23.

Rhode Island's best season during McCloskey's time in Kingston was in 2019-20 when the Rams finished 21-9. Rhode Island entered the Atlantic 10 Tournament as the No. 3 seed and on the bubble for the NCAA Tournament before postseason play was cancelled with the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

McCloskey also spent five seasons working with the Florida Gators, two years under Billy Donovan (2013-15) and three with Mike White (2015-18). McCloskey was an undergraduate manager assisting with day-to-day video operations and projects for three seasons before serving as a graduate assistant for two years, where he assisted with day-to-day operations and player development.

Florida averaged 24.2 wins per season during McCloskey's five campaigns with the Gators. During 2013-14, Florida finished 36-3, including a 30-game winning streak. The Gators captured both the SEC regular-season and SEC Tournament titles, were No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Final Four in Indianapolis. Florida also reached the Elite Eight and Round of 32 during the 2017 and 2018 NCAA Tournaments, respectively, during McCloskey's time with the program.

McCloskey gained additional experience with USA Basketball during the summers of 2014 and 2015. He was part of the support staff for the 2014 U18 and 2015 U19 National Teams. The 2014 squad won the U18 FIBA Americas Championship in Colorado Springs, defeating its five opponents by an average of 54.8 points per game en route to qualifying for the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship. The following summer, the Americans, led by Jalen Brunson and Jayson Tatum, won the Gold Medal at the World Championships in Heraklion, Greece, on the island of Crete.

McCloskey received two degrees from Florida, earning both his bachelor's and master's in Sport Management in 2016 and 2018, respectively. He is married to the former Amanda Peet.

COLLIN CRANE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
3RD SEASON • CARSON-NEWMAN '13

Collin Crane was named Director of Athletic Performance for Georgia Men's Basketball on May 12, 2022.

Crane sports 10 seasons of experience, including stints within the SEC at Mississippi State and Florida. During that span, teams with Crane on their strength and conditioning staff earned postseason bids in seven of nine possible years and averaged 22.8 wins per season.

Crane has spent the past five seasons at Mississippi State, helping the Bulldogs earn postseason bids each year possible. In addition, the Bulldogs were a lock for a postseason invitation in 2020 when they were an NCAA bubble team before the tournament was canceled. Three MSU players during Crane's tenure were on NBA rosters during the 2021-22 season – Reggie Perry (Portland Trail Blazers), Quinndary Weatherspoon (Golden State Warriors) and Robert Woodard II (San Antonio Spurs).

Crane was one of the first strength coaches to partner with Mississippi State's Athlete Engineering Program. The multidisciplinary research collaboration between the university's academic and athletic departments explores human performance, processes and analysis. Since the initiative started, Crane has co-authored multiple peer-reviewed studies on various topics which include force plate analysis and wearable technology in addition to basketball shoe design and assessment.

Prior to his tenure in Starkville, Crane worked at Chattanooga (2015-17), Missouri State (2014-15) and Florida (2012-14). In two seasons at Chattanooga, the Mocs compiled 48 victories, swept the Southern Conference regular-season and tournament titles and earned an NCAA Tournament bid in 2016. He worked with the men's basketball, tennis and golf programs at Missouri State in 2014-15 and also spent two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2012-14. While in Gainesville, the Gators made runs to the 2013 Elite Eight and the 2014 Final Four, and Crane organized NBA Draft training regimens for standouts such as Bradley Beal, Chandler Parsons, Eric Murphy and Patric Young.

Crane played basketball at Carson-Newman University, where he was a four-year starter and three-time captain. Crane ranked fifth in career starts for the Eagles when he graduated. As a senior, Crane helped Carson-Newman to a 20-8 record, the program's first 20-win campaign in a decade. Following the season, Carson-Newman renamed the program's leadership honor the Collin Crane Leadership Award.

Crane earned his bachelor's in Exercise Science from Carson-Newman in 2013 and his master's in Food Science, Nutrition and Health Promotion from Mississippi State in 2020. Crane is married to the former Courtney Lawson. They have two children: a son, Carson, and a daughter, Miller.

YOSHI SAITO

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER
1ST SEASON • MICHIGAN STATE '16

Yoshitomo "Yoshi" Saito, who has extensive experience in the athletic training and sports medicine fields, joined the Bulldogs' staff in the summer of 2024 after spending the previous two seasons with the Georgia Lady Bulldogs. Saito is the primary individual responsible for the overall healthcare of student-athletes and daily team activities and coordinates with team physicians and in-house physical therapists regarding athletes' plans of care.

Saito came to Georgia in 2022 after spending five years at Louisville. He also has collegiate experience at Toledo and Michigan State, his alma mater.

Saito joined the Louisville sports medicine staff in 2018 as a seasonal assistant athletic trainer whose primary responsibilities were with the baseball and men's golf programs. During that year, the Cardinals advanced to the College World Series and Saito managed athletic training services and facilities for multiple golf tournaments, most notably an NCAA Regional.

In 2019, Saito was promoted to an assistant athletic trainer working with the women's lacrosse team.

The following year, Saito was promoted to associate athletic trainer with his responsibilities focusing on the women's basketball program. During his two seasons with the Cardinals, they advanced to the 2021 "Elite Eight" of the NCAA Tournament and reached the 2022 Final Four. Saito also served a stint as the interim athletic trainer for the men's basketball program during that time frame.

He also was a member of Louisville's international onboarding committee which facilitated the return of international student-athletes to campus and developed resocialization plans following the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prior to his tenure at Louisville, Saito spent two seasons at Toledo as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for baseball.

A native of Yokohama, Japan, Saito came to the United States to attend college and played one season of baseball at Lansing Community College. He earned 2013 Michigan Community College Athletic Association (MCCAA) Freshman of Year honors after batting .457 as the starting centerfielder for LCC's Stars. Saito was tabbed first-team All-MCCAA and named to the NJCAA Region XII team as well.

Saito then transferred to Michigan State, where he joined the Spartans' staff as an athletic trainer. In 2016, he was honored with both the Ray J. Saltzman Outstanding Student Athletic Trainer Award and the Jack and Mary Ann Heppinstall Memorial Scholarship.

Saito received his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Michigan State in 2016 and earned a master's in Exercise Science with a concentration in Athletic Training from Toledo in 2018.

In May 2024, Saito married the former Macy Ward.

CASEY REED

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT
3RD SEASON • FLORIDA '10

Casey Reed joined the Georgia Basketball staff as the Executive Assistant in May 2022 after spending a decade working within the spirit programs at the University of Florida.

Reed handles a vast list of job responsibilities for the Bulldogs, managing different aspects of the program's office, facility, travel and budget needs. In addition, she also coordinates Georgia Basketball's outreach efforts within the Athletic Association, the Athens community and with former players; serves as a liaison to the promotions, marketing and fan engagement departments; and aids with the Ultimate Guide to Achievement (UGA) initiative to provide players with off-court development opportunities on topics such as financial literacy, community service, social awareness and career development.

From 2012-22, Reed served as the coordinator for Florida's Dazzlers dance team and mascots, with the focal point of enhancing the game day atmosphere for students and alumni at Gator athletic competitions. She also served as liaison between the men's basketball program and the Tip Off Club, its support group, concerning meeting programming, guest speakers, team relations and compliance procedure execution.

During her tenure in Gainesville, Reed managed all travel, equipment purchasing and scholarship distribution for the Gators' spirit squads. Additional duties included coordinating more than 300 internal and external appearance requests for the spirit program, developing and executing various partnership and trade contracts for the spirit teams and assisting with activation of sponsorship-related requirements for the spirit in association with IMG. She also operated multiple "Jr. Spirit Day" camps to raise revenue for the spirit programs and build community involvement.

Reed earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Entomology from Florida in 2010 and 2014, respectively. She was a member of the Dazzlers Dance Team throughout her four years as an undergraduate, serving as the team's co-captain from 2007-09 and captain from 2009-10.

After securing her bachelor's degree, Reed served as an intern at the Walt Disney World Resort from 2010-11. She worked within the "Living with the Land" attraction inside EPCOT and conducted daily "Behind the Seeds Tours," providing guests within an interactive insight at EPCOT's greenhouses, labs and aquaculture facilities.

Reed returned to Gainesville and was a graduate assistant within the school's Entomology program from 2011-14. Her professional experience also includes serving as a judge for Varsity Spirit cheerleading competitions across the country in 2016 and 2017.

Dr. Palmer is in his eighth as the team physician for Georgia Basketball and also works with the women's soccer and baseball programs.

Dr. Palmer served as team physician for a number of colleges and high schools beginning July 2005. He completed a family medicine residency at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga in 2008 and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Washington in 2009. From 2009-14, he worked for Northeast Georgia Physicians Group and was a team physician for the Atlanta Falcons, the University of North Georgia and Chestatee High School. Dr. Palmer also has special expertise and 14 years of experience working with diabetes and has worked with various community youth groups since 2001.

A native of Elberton, Ga., Dr. Palmer graduated from Elbert County Comprehensive High School in 1997. During his time as undergraduate at UGA, he served as a manager for the Georgia Football program for the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Dr. Palmer graduated from Georgia with a bachelor's degree in Biology in 2001 before attending Medical College of Georgia.

Dr. Palmer and his wife, the former Lindsey Ebel, have two sons – Wyatt and Chandler.

SAMANTHA SPURLOCK

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Samantha Spurlock joined the UGA Athletic Association staff as an academic counselor in January of 2020 to work with the men's basketball and men's and women's cross country programs.

Spurlock arrived in Athens following stints at West Virginia and Marshall. She was an assistant director of student-athlete development at West Virginia from 2017-20, serving as academic advisor for the baseball, gymnastics and women's tennis programs. From 2014-17, Spurlock was an academic advisor for at Marshall and served as advisor for all 14 of the Thundering Herd's different Olympic sports during her tenure. She originally joined the Marshall staff as a graduate assistant for M Club & Big Green, the Herd's Scholarship Foundation, from 2012-14.

Spurlock was a four-year letterwinner for the Thundering Herd softball team. She earned both NFCA Scholar-Athlete and C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition. In 2012, Spurlock was named to the 2012 C-USA Championship All-Tournament Team. A native of Huntington, W. Va., she led Huntington High to back-to-back state titles in 2007 and 2008.

Spurlock earned a pair of degrees from Marshall, securing her bachelor's in Business Administration and Marketing in 2012 her master's in Sports Administration in 2014.

ERICA UNDERHILL

SPORTS NUTRITION

Erica Underhill joined the UGA Athletic Association staff in the summer of 2024 as the Performance Dietitian for men's and women's basketball.

Underhill arrived in Athens after spending three years at UCF, where she was named assistant director for performance nutrition in July of 2021 before being promoted to director and team football dietitian later that year. While in Orlando, she established the UCF Athletics Performance Nutrition Department servicing over 500 student-athletes.

From 2020-21, Underhill was a sports dietitian at Utah conducting the performance nutrition efforts for women's soccer, baseball, women's tennis, women's basketball and assisting with football.

Underhill also has related performance nutrition experience with Team V at the United States Olympic and Paralympic Training Center in Colorado Springs and as a high school athletic team nutrition educator for BRelentless, a performance facility in Morton, Ill. In addition, she spent time as a clinical dietitian with UC Health Memorial Hospital, a community research assistant with OSF Healthcare and a teaching assistant at UCCS.

Underhill received her Bachelor of Science in Nutrition from the University of Colorado - Colorado Springs in 2017 and earned her Master of Science in dietetics and curriculum development from Bradley in 2019.

CAROLYN WALLACE

EVENT & FACILITY OPERATIONS

Carolyn Wallace joined the UGA staff as Associate Director of Event Management in 2017 and currently serves as Senior Associate Director of Event & Facility Operations. Wallace oversees event management for basketball and is facility manager for Stegeman Coliseum and its Training Facility.

Prior to arriving in Athens, Wallace served as event operations manager at Colorado State from 2015-16 where she oversaw gameday management of the women's soccer, women's basketball, track & field and women's tennis programs. At Wake Forest from 2014-15, she was gameday manager and budget manager for women's soccer, women's tennis and track & field. She also was tournament manager for the first round of the 2014 Men's Soccer NCAA Championship. Wallace coordinated event management for four sports and various special events at Villanova from 2013-14 and was gameday manager for five sports at Hartford in 2012-13.

Wallace earned bachelor's degrees from Randolph-Macon (business/economics in 2010) and Eastern Connecticut State (sport and leisure management in 2011). She was an Academic All-America swimmer for both schools. Wallace earned her master's in sport management from Springfield in 2013. Carolyn married Ben Wallace in July 2021. The couple welcomed a daughter, Emmalyn, in April 2023.

KEVIN WELCH

EXTERNAL OPERATIONS

Kevin Welch joined the UGA Athletic Association staff in 2011 and currently serves as Director of External Operations.

In that role, his responsibilities include developing and coordinating strategies for new revenue streams and fan engagement across the departmental external enterprises and managing marketing assets for internal and external partners.

Welch began his Athletic Association tenure as a student-athlete mentor from 2011-13 and also served as a part-time marketing assistant during that span before transitioning to a full-time role in 2013. Prior to arriving in Athens, his experience included coaching basketball at Bloomsberg University (2003-04), Wilmington University (2004-09) and Goldey Beacom College (2009-11).

A native of Cincinnati, Welch was named third-team All-Ohio by the Ohio Prep Sportswriter Association in 2000 after averaging 17 points and 12 rebounds as a senior at Indian Hill High School.

From 2000-03, he played at Bucknell, where he received his bachelor's degree in Business Management in 2004. Welch also earned his MBA from the University of Delaware in 2008.

Kevin and his wife, Jennie, who played volleyball at Bucknell, have two children: daughter Julianne and son Colin.

WILL WHITTY

CREATIVE SERVICES

Will Whitty joined the UGA Athletic Association's Creative Services team in July of 2023 as a Graphic Designer.

Whitty is in his first year overseeing the graphic brand development the men's basketball and also coordinates those efforts for the Bulldogs' baseball, volleyball and track & field programs. During his first year in Athens, he assisted with 19 of Georgia's 21 sports...every sport other than football and men's basketball.

Whitty is a native of Benicia, Calif., in Northern California's Bay Area. He played four years of basketball at Benicia High School, although his junior and senior seasons were hindered by injuries. Whitty went on to play at UC Santa Cruz, a Division III school, for five seasons from 2018-23. His most productive game as a Banana Slug included six points and a pair of assists against St. Katerine on Feb. 22, 2020.

While as UC Santa Cruz, Whitty also served as an intern for FOX Sports' Los Angeles office during his junior and senior years. He produced graphics for the network's studio shows such as Undisputed and The Herd with Colin Cowherd and podcasts including Club Shay Shay with Shannon Sharpe.

Whitty earned his bachelor's degree in Film & Digital Media from UC Santa Cruz in 2023.

JOHN BATEMAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR – MARKETING
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

John Bateman, who with his combined experiences as a UGA student and full-time employee has been a member of the Athletic Association staff for more than three decades, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing in the summer of 2014 after serving eight years as Director of Marketing.

In addition to being the sport facilitator for men's basketball, Bateman is responsible for coordinating ticket sales plans, venue concessions and merchandise contracts, marketing and promotional activities on georgiadogs.com and gameday print operations. He is also the liaison between the Athletic Association and the Redcoat Marching Band and all other athletic bands.

Bateman joined the Georgia promotions office on a full-time basis in 1994 and served as Assistant Director for three years. He was promoted to Associate Director in 1997 before being named the Director in 2004. Bateman was promoted once again in 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director, and he also received oversight as the sport administrator for the men's basketball program at that time.

Bateman is a "double-dog" with two degrees from University of Georgia – a bachelor's in Business Administration in 1991 and master's Sport Management in 1993. As an undergraduate, he served as a manager for the men's basketball team, including UGA's 1990 SEC Championship squad. The Bulldogs reached postseason play during three of Bateman's four years with the team, including the 1987 and 2000 NCAA Tournaments and the 1988 NIT.

Bateman began his professional career by working as the championships and officiating assistant at the Southeastern Conference from 1993-94 before returning to his alma mater in 1994.

A native of Albany, Ga., Bateman is married to the former Jill Sirmans, a native of Valdosta, Ga. John is a huge fans of the Atlanta Braves and an avid walker/runner who has run the last 16 editions of the Peachtree Road Race. Jill recently retired after working for the UGA Foundation for 30 years. She was Director of Development with a fundraising focus on the Georgia Women Give initiative.

DARRICE GRIFFIN

SENIOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

Darrice Griffin was named Senior Deputy Director of Athletics on January 1, 2021, after serving as Deputy Director of Athletics of Administration at UGA since December 2017. Griffin's responsibilities have included the day-to-day oversight responsibilities for some internal operations including Human Resources and strategic organizational advancement of the Athletics Association. She also serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Sports Facilitator for several sports programs. In addition, Griffin represents the Athletics Association within various SEC and institutional leadership groups.

Griffin previously served as a senior member of the athletic administration at the University of Massachusetts from 2015-17. She served as Deputy Director of Athletics from July 2017-December 2017, after holding the position of Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations for two years. Additionally, Griffin was also the department's Senior Woman Administrator during her entire tenure in Amherst.

As Deputy Director at UMass she oversaw day-to-day operations relating to student-athletes, facilities and competitions, while also serving on numerous campus committees and as the liaison with many campus constituents. Griffin had administrative oversight responsibilities for a number of Minutemen sports, including football, women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, field hockey and softball.

Prior to Amherst, Griffin spent the previous six years (2009-2015) at Columbia University, including the last four as Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sports Programs. With the Lions, Griffin had oversight for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, softball and baseball. She worked alongside the offices of admissions and financial aid, while also assisting in fundraising and development initiatives for both the athletic department at-large and her assigned sport programs. Griffin played a role in several student-athlete initiatives, including Columbia's The First-Year Transition Program and The Leaders for Life Program. Within the University itself, Griffin was an active member of the President's Advisory Committee on Sexual Assault, had a leadership role on the University Bystander Intervention Task Force and played a key role in the University-wide initiative Step-Up.

A native of Seagraves, Texas, Griffin was a standout basketball student-athlete at Texas Tech, graduating in 2007 with cum laude honors in Psychology. She was a four-time recipient of the Texas Tech Student-Athlete Merit Award, a two-time Academic All-Big 12 Conference honoree and was named an Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar in 2007. Griffin comes from an elite basketball family. Her mother, Tami Wilson, played at Texas Tech from 1990-92 and her sister, Teddy, also played for the Lady Raiders from 2005-08. Griffin was the 2004 Gatorade Player of the Year in Texas and also was an All-Texas First-Team selection and a McDonald's All-American.

JOSH BROOKS

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
LSU '02

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks, a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year in 2023, continues to lead Georgia Athletics to historic success.

UGA Athletics boasts remarkable accomplishments over the last three years, including a No. 7 final ranking in the 2023 Learfield Directors Cup – Georgia's highest mark in 18 years, a record-setting student-athlete GPA in each of the last two academic campaigns, unparalleled fundraising and over 15 capital projects that have been completed or are in progress.

Bulldog athletic teams have won three team national championships and a total of seven SEC crowns, while there have been 15 individual national champions.

The women's soccer and volleyball teams have made the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back years for the first-time ever. The baseball program advanced to a NCAA Super Regional for the first time since 2008 during Wes Johnson's first season as head coach. Keidane McAlpine guided the soccer team to the 2023 SEC Championship, finishing with its highest national ranking ever (No. 13). In addition to back-to-back national titles in 2021 and 2022, Georgia's football boasted an incredible 39-0 regular season record during Brooks' three-year tenure. They recorded three-straight 12-0 regular seasons – a first in SEC history.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million basketball weight room and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall. Georgia also is constructing a one-of-a-kind track & field facility which will include the only indoor venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. UGA was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor, as well as adding sports psychology services for every team.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks' vision of competing for championships and postseason success and his passion for student-athletes began well before his time as Athletic Director.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy AD at Louisiana-Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He was Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant & Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA. Brooks also was director of football operations at ULM from 2004-08 after gaining experience as a student at LSU working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012. The Brooks have become a vital part of the Athens community. Just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created since the GCS program launched in January 2017.

JERE MOREHEAD

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
GEORGIA J.D. '80

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia president on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the university completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and is ranked first in the nation for the number of research-based products reaching the marketplace.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, and the university's enrollment reached an all-time high last fall.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming president, he was senior vice president for academic affairs and provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including vice president for instruction, vice provost for academic affairs, associate provost and director of the Honors Program, and acting executive director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as editor-in-chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as co-chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation board of trustees.

He is the immediate past chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I board of directors. He previously served as president of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and chair of the SEC executive committee and as a member of the NCAA's board of governors; presidential forum; working group on name, image, and likeness; and federal and state legislation working group.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several university-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award. Following a nearly $12 million capital campaign, the University System of Georgia Board of Regents named the Honors College at the University of Georgia in his honor.

MOVIE: Over The Hedge
TV SHOW: The Simpsons
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Kevin Durant
ACTOR: Will Smith
MUSICAL ARTISTS: Rod Wave

FAVORITE EARLY CHILDHOOD MEMORY OF PLAYING BASKETBALL: I went to a Dwyane Wade Camp, and I met Jordyn Kee's dad at that camp. He invited me to play in his AAU team, and that's how me playing basketball really started.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: My blocking ability.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: My sophomore year when I got my first college offer.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER? My paint presence on both sides of the ball.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... The group of people I'm around every day.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... The conditioning.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 because I'm not a 1-on-1 type person. I like helping others get open and making plays like that.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Shooting.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? Silas' shot-creating ability.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Cost To Be Alive by Lil Baby.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I read a Bible verse. Psalms 4:14 "Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil."

WHO IS THE MOST FAMOUS PERSON FROM YOUR HIGH SCHOOL? Ariana Grande.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- One of four Bulldogs to see action in all 37 games, starting nine of the season's final 10 contests.
- Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Averaged 7.4 points and 2.5 rebounds in 20.8 minutes of action per game.
- Notched 11 double-figure scoring outputs, led by a season-high 19-point outburst against Missouri in the SEC Tournament.
- On the season, 50 of his 103 made field goals – 48.5 percent – were from 3-point range.
- Scored 12 points against Oregon, the first Georgia freshman with a double-digit performance in the season opener since Anthony Edwards and Sahvir Wheeler scored 24 and 19, respectively, in 2019.
- Put up seven points in a span of 60 seconds against No. 12/11 Miami to turn a two-point deficit into a five-point lead. Eventually finished with a game-high 18 points versus the Hurricanes.
- Notched all 12 of his points by connecting on a quartet of 3s against Georgia Tech.
- Put up a game-high 18 points against Alabama A&M...and missed 20 only because he chose an off-the-backboard assist for a slam dunk by a trailing player over his own breakaway dunk.
- Scored 10 of his 14 points at Florida in the final 3:16 of regulation as Georgia erased an 11-point deficit to tie the game at 85-85.
- Left the Auburn game in Athens due to a cut on his face at the 9:07 mark of the first half but returned with 3:33 remaining after receiving stitches.
- Notched his first career start at LSU.
- Exploded for a career-high 19 points against Missouri in the SEC Tournament, the fourth time he led the Bulldogs on the offensive end during his freshman campaign.
- Enjoyed a stellar postseason, producing season highs for points (19 vs. Missouri), rebounds (eight at Ohio State), assists (four vs. Missouri) and steals (four vs. Missouri).
- Upped his regular-season averages of 7.0 ppg and 2.2 rpg to 9.5 ppg and 4.5 rpg in six SEC Tournament and NIT outings.

A LITTLE ABOUT SOMTO

FAVORITE...

Before we start Somto states: "I don't do favorites. I love everybody. To do favorites is difficult for me."

MOVIE: The Rush Hour franchise

PRO SPORT TO WATCH: Basketball or soccer

BASKETBALL PLAYER: LeBron James, Russell Westbrook because he has so much energy and some people compare my game to Dwight Howard.

NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Cristiana Rinaldo

ACTOR: Jackie Chan, I watched a lot of his movies growing up as a kid and it's amazing that he rarely had stunt artists. He did everything himself.

FAVORITE EARLY MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Watching LeBron's highlights. I really didn't know much about basketball so I had to watch videos to learn. The first thing that popped up was LeBron.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Dunking and blocking shots.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Winning.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? I wish I could run fast like De'Shayne.

IS THERE A SPORT YOU PLAYED GROWING UP THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Soccer. I think my footwork is really good when I'm in the paint, and I think soccer helped me with that.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Hit Em Up by Tupac Shakur.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I listen to music but it depends on how I'm feeling. If I have so much energy before a game, I listen to music to calm me down. But if I'm a little too calm, I listen to music to hype myself up.

- Tallied 18 double-digit scoring outputs, including a season-high 22 points at No. 8/10 Kentucky.
- Scored 359 points, supplanting Trey Thompkins in the No. 10 spot among the Bulldogs' all-time freshman scoring leaders.
- One of only five freshmen to average double figures in SEC play (10.5 ppg).
- Upped his scoring production in SEC play by 2.0 ppg, from 8.5 in non-conference action to 10.5 in league games. Much of that was attributed to efficiency at the free throw line. After shooting .620 (31-of-50) in non-conference play, upped that to .777 (73-of-94) vs. SEC foes.
- Finished the season ranked No. 11 in the SEC in steals (1.4 spg).
- Started the season opener against Oregon, the first Bulldog freshman to get the nod in Georgia's initial outing since Anthony Edwards in 2019.
- Posted his first double-figure evening as a Bulldog with 10 points against Wake Forest in the home opener.
- Produced a very complete linescore against No. 12/11 Miami, with nine points, eight boards, seven assists and three steals.
- Led Georgia offensively for the first time in his career with 15 points in the Bulldogs' come-from-behind victory at Florida State in the ACC/SEC Challenge.
- Matched his season-high scoring output with 15 points at South Carolina and equally important, with UGA up 72-67 and 12 seconds left, blocked a 3-point attempt to end any doubt of the game's outcome.
- Scored 22 points at No. 8/10 Kentucky, the most by a UGA freshman against a top-10 team since Anthony Edwards' 37 vs. No. 3 Michigan State in the 2019 Maui Jim Maui Invitational.

A LITTLE ABOUT SILAS

FAVORITE...

MOVIES: Space Jam & White Men Can't Jump
PRO TEAM: L.A. Lakers
BASKETBALL PLAYER: LeBron James
NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Micah Parsons
ACTORS: Mike Epps or Bernie Mac
MUSICAL ARTIST: Lil Baby
MEAL: Hibachi (steak, chicken and shrimp)

EARLIEST MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: In the 3rd grade, watching the NBA and college games.

DID YOU PLAY ANY OTHER SPORTS: Actually, football was mainly my sport up until 9th grade. I played wide receiver, quarterback and defensive back. I switched to basketball because of the way my body was changing and growing. I felt like I had more of a basketball body.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: Going into my junior year. I was a late bloomer.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: Getting paint touches and creating disadvantages for the defense.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Winning.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? Probably 3-on-3 because I can create disadvantages with the screen and roll.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Any song by Gunna.

DO YOU HAVE A PREGAME ROUTINE? I play slower music to calm my mind down.

WHAT DO YOU WISH PEOPLE KNEW ABOUT YOU? I have a twin sister, Sierra.

A LITTLE ABOUT SAVO

FAVORITE...

TV SHOW: Le Casa De Papel
PRO TEAM: Partizan (because I play there)
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Luca Dončić
NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Neymar
MUSICAL ARTIST: Morad

FAVORITE BASKETBALL MEMORY: When I was 16, playing my first professional game in front of 20,000 fans for Partizan in Serbia.

WHAT PART OF BASKETBALL CAME NATURALLY: My passion for the game. I was practicing like crazy when I was younger. I was practicing like seven hours a day, every day.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: Pretty soon after I started playing...probably like when I was 7.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER? Being able to create, to score or make a great play for a teammate to make an assist...like reading the situation.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 1-on-1 because you have the most freeedom playing 1-on-1.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Defensively, I'm trying to get better every day.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? The players who jump really, high like Asa, Somto, De'Shayne. They're crazy.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? I would rotate my playlist. I have about 100 songs I play so I would just play what I want that game.

WHAT'S YOUR GAMEDAY ROUTINE? I try to do the same thing every time like eat the same thing. I usually shower two times before the game. Of couse, I'm sleeping and listening to music to stay positive and try to have run.

A LITTLE ABOUT RJ

FAVORITE...

MOVIE: Thor: Ragnarok

TV SHOW: SpongeBob SquarePants

PRO TEAM: Atlanta Falcons

BASKETBALL PLAYER: Herb Jones

NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: I love Kirk Cousins but I would have to say Robert Griffin

ACTOR: Chris Hemsworth

SONG: Keith Whitley

FAVORITE EARLY MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Watching Georgia State upset Baylor on RJ Hunter's 3-pointer with my dad in the home theater in his man cave.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Setting screens. I'm just so physical. Genetically, that was passed down to me.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: When I was 17.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Eating with the team.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Warm-ups.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 because I like being part of a team and sharing the ball and being able to play with more people.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Iron Man by Black Sabbath.

2023-24 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Played in 22 contests, earning a starting nod for the final eight outings of the season.
- Averaged 4.0 points and 2.6 boards in 14.5 minutes of action per game.
- Notched a pair of double-figure performances, headlined by a 14-point showing in an NIT second-round win at Wake Forest.
- Scored nine points on an efficient 4-of-5 shooting performance in an exhibition victory over Eastern Kentucky.
- Faced off against his older brother Dorian when Georgia played North Florida.
- Logged his first SEC action in the first half of Georgia's outing against No. 24/22 Alabama.
- Checked in during the first half of the Florida game in Athens but left shortly thereafter after being poked in the eye and did not return to the court.
- Equaled what was then his career-high scoring output with nine points at LSU.
- Logged a career-high 18 minutes in back-to-back outings against Auburn and LSU...and then upped that to 26 against Ole Miss.
- Made the most of his first career start against Ole Miss, posting his first double-digit scoring output with 10 points and coming within one rebound of a double-double.
- Entered the Wake Forest game shooting 33.3 percent (7-of-21) from 3-point range on the season before connecting on 4-of-5 attempts from behind the arc against the Demon Deacons.
- Knocked down huge 3-pointers late in wins at Wake Forest – with 3:31 to extend UGA's lead back to double figures – and Ohio State – with 2:23 left to put the Bulldogs up 75-74.
- Clocked double-digit minutes in 14 of the last 15 games...after logging just three minutes against Alabama to go along with eight DNPs in Georgia's first nine SEC outings.
- In the last 15 contests, more than doubled his scoring and rebounding over seven GPs in the first 22 games of the season – from 2.1 ppg to 4.9 ppg and from 1.4 rpg to 3.2 rpg.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- Coached by Tyrone Woodside during his freshman, junior and senior seasons at Winter Haven High.

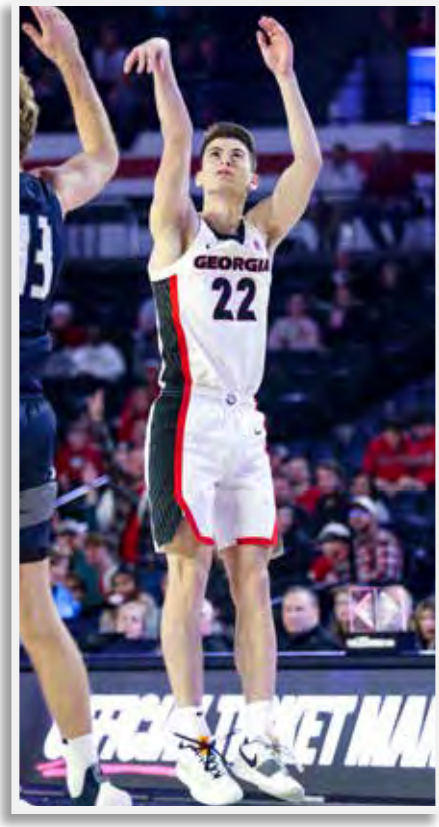
2022-23 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named to the SEC's First-Year Academic Honor Roll.
- Walk-on who did not log playing time during the regular season to secure a redshirt.
- Checked in for the final minute of action during Georgia's preseason exhibition victory over Georgia College.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- Coached by former Mayland standout Tahj Holden at the Ranney School.
- Holden helped Maryland post 103 wins, capture the 2002 NCAA Championship and reach the 2001 Final Four during his collegiate career with the Terrapins from 1999-2003.
- A four-year letterwinner at Ranney and helped the Panthers compile a 78-20 record from 2018-22, including a perfect 38-0 mark in Shore Conference outings.



- Averaged 5.5 points in 61 career outings at Ranney, posting 11 double-figure scoring performances.
- Produced more than 55 percent of his career points on 3-pointers, connecting on nearly twice as many trifectas (62) as shots from the floor inside the arc (35).
- As a senior, averaged 6.1 points per game to help Ranney compile a 21-6 record and reach the championship game of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association (NJSIAA) South Jersey Non-Public B Tournament. Just so you'll know, that's also the semifinal round of the overall state tourney not the title contest.
- Posted a season-high 15 points against Moorestown Friend School in the opening round of the South Jersey tourney.

A LITTLE ABOUT DAKOTA

FAVORITE...

MOVIE: Above the Rim

TV SHOW: The Regular Show

PRO TEAM: Golden State Warriors

BASKETBALL PLAYER: Steph Curry

MUSICAL ARTIST: Honcho

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Shooting.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... the excitement of playing the game.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... conditioning and running.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 1-on-1 because I like when it's just me versus another person.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Everything...I'm not perfect at anything.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? I wish I was more vocal like Silas is.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? In a Minute by Lil Baby.

DO YOU HAVE ANY RELATIVES WHO PLAYED COLLEGE OR PRO SPORTS: My uncle (Tshombe High) played basketball at Miami (Fla.).

WHO IS THE MOST FAMOUS PERSON FROM YOUR HIGH SCHOOL? The Douglas brothers. Harry played in the NFL (2008-14 with Atlanta and 2015-18 with Tennessee), and Toney played in the NBA (2009-12 with New York, 2012-13 with Houston and Sacramento, 2013-14 with Golden State and Miami, 2014-16 with New Orleans and 2016-17 with Memphis).

MOVIE: The Avengers Series (all of them)
TV SHOW: Stranger Things
PRO TEAM: Whatever team Kevin Durant is on
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Kevin Durant
NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Tank Davis
ACTOR: Tom Holland
SONG: Kodak Black

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: My athleticism.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER? My defensive abilities.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Dunking on people.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 1-on-1 because if I lose it's on me and nobody else.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? My shooting for sure.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? RJ's hook shot.

IS THERE A SPORT YOU PLAYED GROWING UP THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Soccer, I feel like it helped by football. With soccer, you need good footwork and that translated over to basketball.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Too Slippery by BossMan DLow with Luh Tyler but only Luh Tyler's part.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? Just listen to some music.

DO YOU HAVE ANY RELATIVES WHO PLAYED COLLEGE OR PRO SPORTS: My dad (Demetris Montgomery) played college at Lynn University and overseas in Spain, Australia and some other places.

The Georgia Bulldogs continued their consistent and impressive improvement under head coach Mike White.

A year after upping their regular-season win total by 10 victories – the second-largest jump of any Power conference program during 2022-23 – the Bulldogs upped that mark and returned the postseason in 2024.

After securing its postseason bid since 2017, Georgia reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2016 while advancing to the semifinals of the NIT.

The Bulldogs improvement was readily apparent during their postseason success. Throughout play, Georgia challenged the league's best teams on a regular basis. The Bulldogs owned double-digit leads in games against four of the SEC's eight NCAA Tournament teams before falling to each. In the NIT, Georgia closed out similar contests against Xavier, Wake Forest and Ohio State, with the latter two of the aforementioned coming on the road.

"There are a couple we all wish we could have back, just like there are every season," White said after the Ohio State win. "We just weren't able to beat those teams on those nights. But we're better now.

"We were picked near the bottom (of the SEC), but we have higher expectations and standards within our program," White said. "If we finish a few of those close ones a little better, we could potentially be in that other tournament. But I love the character our guys are showing. They're playing with gratitude, playing with appreciation for the opportunity and taking advantage. That's huge."

Those results weren't the only confirmation of the Bulldogs' progress in year two under White.

Entering the NIT, six of the most commonly utilized models had the Bulldogs up by an average of 53.9 spots. With additional improvement among the five that continued to update during postseason play – Torvik, KenPom, NET, BPI and SOR – that average finished the season up to 59.2 positions as outlined to the right.

FRESHMEN MAKE THEIR MARK

Georgia's freshmen made a impressive impact during the 2023-24 season, particularly in SEC play. Blue Cain, Silas Demary Jr. and Dylan James all got a starting nod in the Bulldogs' last eight games – the first time a trio of freshmen started for Georgia since Anthony Edwards, Toumani Camara and Sahvir Wheeler did so in 2020.

Cain and Demary were two of only eight freshman who logged 20.0 mpg in SEC outings. James saw his playing time jump significantly late in the campaign, averaging 17.5 mpg in the last 15 games.

Silas Demary Jr. started more games – both overall and in league play – than any other freshman in the SEC.

Demary, who was named to the league's All-Freshman team in balloting of league coaches, led all SEC freshman in games started, both overall (34) and in SEC action (17). The lone game he was not on the floor for the opening tip was UGA's "Senior Day." Demary was one of only five freshmen in the SEC who averaged double figures in conference action at 10.5 ppg.

Cain was one of just 10 SEC freshmen who scored 6.5 ppg or more in league games. He did much of his damage from 3-point range, with 50 of his 103 field goals (48.5 percent) coming from behind the arc.

In addition to his increased playing time, James averaged 4.9 ppg and 3.2 rpg in Georgia's last 15 contests, more than double the 2.1 ppg and 1.4 rpg he contributed in seven games played during the Bulldogs' first 22 outings of the season.

DOGS' BENCH PROVIDES PRODUCTION

Georgia ranked No. 21 nationally in benching scoring during 2023-24, contributing 28.5 ppg.

Georgia's reserves outscored their counterparts in 30 of 37 games, including a span of 16 straight outings from the second game of the season against Wake Forest on Nov. 10 to a Jan. 20 trip to No. 8/10 Kentucky.

Georgia sported an impressive cumulative scoring margin of +387 in bench points – an advantage of +10.5 ppg.

EVERYONE GETS A NOD

All 12 scholarship Bulldogs who played during 2023-24 started at least one game, comprising 12 different starting fives.

Georgia mixed and matched seven players to form three sets of starters in the first 10 games. The Bulldogs then settled into the same starting unit for the next 10 contests.

Over the last 11 regular-season outings, Georgia used eight different sets of starters. The lineup shifted again at Wake Forest in the NIT, when Frank Anselem-Ibe started with Russel Tchewa out with an illness.

Noah Thomasson was the only Bulldog to start every game...although Silas Demary Jr. got the nod for every game but "Senior Day."

GEORGIA'S MAGIC NUMBER IS ON THE "OTHER" END OF THE FLOOR

Dr. James Naismith's 13th and final rule was "The side making the most goals in that time shall be declared the winner."

For Georgia, the number of points the opposing team scores has been an extremely strong indicator of success. The Bulldogs are 28-2 when holding its opponents under 70 points during Mike White's tenure.

LOTS OF NAIL-BITERS FOR THE DOGS

Georgia's NIT victories over Xavier and Ohio State were not decided until the final horn, upping the number of "close games" for Georgia during 2023-24 to 18.

Of the Bulldogs' 37 games...

- 18 were within one-possession in the last 5:00. Georgia was 10-8 in those.
- 16 were within one-possession in the last 90 seconds. Georgia was 8-8 in those.
- 13 were within one-possession in the last 30 seconds. Georgia was 8-5 in those.

BULLDOGS FIND ROAD SUCCESS

Georgia's victory at Ohio State in the NIT quarterfinals represented the Bulldogs' sixth road win of the season and upped the Bulldogs' record to 6-6 in road contests.

Georgia was a combined 7-44 on the road over the five seasons prior to 2023-24. The six road Ws were the most the Bulldogs have recorded in a season since 2014-15.

WHITE STRONG IN POSTSEASON

With Georgia's win over Xavier, Mike White improved to 9-0 in opening games of the NCAA Tournament and NIT. Following UGA's run to the 2024 NIT semis, White is now 16-9 in postseason – 6-4 in the NCAAs and 10-5 in the NIT.

While at Florida, White was the only SEC coach to earn NCAA bids in every tourney contested between 2017-21...and the Gators were an NCAA lock in 2020 before the tournament was cancelled.

Russel Tchewa's 3-point play with 2.3 seconds left lifted Georgia to a 68-66 win over LSU, one of 13 games decided in the final 30 seconds.

Florida also was one of only six Division I programs to win a game in each of those four NCAA tourneys from 2017-21 along with Kansas, Gonzaga, Michigan, Villanova and Florida State. Headlining those bids was the Gators' trip of the 2017 "Elite Eight."

White has NIT records of 5-3 at Louisiana Tech, 2-1 at Florida and 3-1 at Georgia, with road wins at Ohio State (2016 & 2024), Florida State (2013), Georgia (2014), Texas A&M (2015) and Wake Forest (2024).

White's postseason success dates back to his career as a four-year starter at Ole Miss. He helped the Rebels to their first back-to-back NCAA bids in 1997 and 1998 and added a third straight in 1999. White lists dribbling out the clock against Villanova in Ole Miss' first NCAA Tournament win ever as a senior as the most memorable moment of his playing career.

DON'T LOOK ETHEL...OF STREAKS

The Bulldogs' 2023-24 season was certainly a streaky one. Georgia put together a 10-game winning string from Nov. 24-Jan. 10, tying the fourth-longest in program history and the longest in 75 years as outlined to the left.

Within their 12-3 start to the campaign, the Bulldogs were a perfect 10-0 at Stegeman, equaling their seventh-longest home winning streak ever and the fifth-longest since moving into the arena in 1964.

Rayshaun Hammonds double-double of 15 points and 12 rebounds led Georgia to a 65-62 upset at No. 9 Memphis on Jan. 4, 2020. The victory was just the Bulldogs' second-ever road win over a ranked non-conference opponent. Georgia's only other road win over an AP top-25 team came on Dec. 29, 1977, when the Bulldogs upset No. 7 Louisville, 73-70, in the championship of the Louisville Classic.

2008 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Terrance Woodbury (above left) and MVP Sundiata Gaines (above right) led Georgia to the 2008 SEC Tournament championship with an unforgettable run that included two games in one day. After knocking off Ole Miss in overtime on Thursday, a category F2 tornado struck downtown Atlanta on the night of March 14 shortly before the Bulldogs were to take on Kentucky. It forced postponement of that second-round game, and the tournament's remainder was played at Alexander Memorial Coliseum (top), home court of arch-rival Georgia Tech. Georgia defeated both the Wildcats and Mississippi State on March 15 and then outlasted Arkansas in the championship game on March 16.

THE "OTHER CINDERELLA" OF 1983 THE FINAL FOUR

N.C. State's victory over Houston in the 1983 NCAA Championship game is one of the college basketball's most memorable games. Somewhat lost is Georgia's run as the "other Cinderella" that year. The Bulldogs upset No. 3 St. John's and No. 8 North Carolina to win the NCAA East Regional at the Carrier Dome advance to Albuquerque before falling to the Wolfpack in the NCAA semifinals.

The late Alec Kessler, an All-America forward at Georgia in 1989-90, arguably rates among the top scholar-athletes in collegiate history. Kessler, a 3.91 student in Microbiology, was twice named the U.S. Basketball Writers Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For being so honored, Kessler was awarded a pair of $20,000 post-graduate scholarships. Kessler, who played four seasons for the NBA's Miami Heat, in 1991 donated all $40,000 from these scholarships to UGA's general scholarship fund.

Each SEC school annually selects a Legend who made outstanding contributions on and off the court and brought notoriety, prestige and honor to both their school and the SEC. The Legends are recognized at the SEC Tournament.

DOMINIQUE WILKINS

Known as the "Human Highlight Film," Dominique Wilkins arrived in Athens in 1979 and helped take Georgia Basketball to new heights.

Individually, Wilkins was a two-time All-American and a three-time All-SEC honoree. He was also tabbed both SEC Player of the Year and MVP of the SEC Tournament in 1981.

From a team perspective, Wilkins led Georgia to the 1981 NIT, the Bulldogs' first postseason appearance. A year later, he helped Georgia advance to the NIT semifinals.

Wilkins entered the NBA Draft after his junior year. He was the No. 3 overall pick by the Utah Jazz but soon thereafter traded to the Atlanta Hawks. Wilkins played the majority of his career with the Hawks, where he was a nine-time All-Star, a seven-time All-NBA selection and a two-time slam dunk champion.

In 1991, Wilkins became the first Bulldog to have his jersey – No. 21 – retired by Georgia.

Wilkins was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, was a member of the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 2005, was Georgia Basketball's first inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

HUGH DURHAM

During 17 seasons at Georgia, Hugh Durham elevated Georgia Basketball to a national stage.

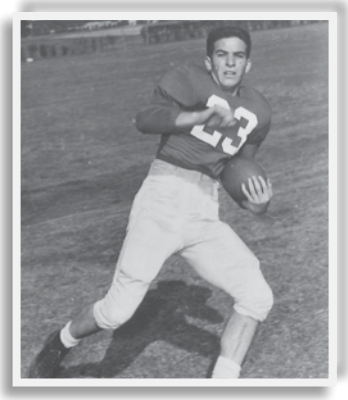
Durham is UGA's winningest coach with 297 victories. Prior to his arrival, Georgia had never received a postseason bid in 74 seasons. The Bulldogs reached postseason play 11 times during Durham's tenure and also won their first SEC Tournament in 1983 and SEC Championship in 1990. He was named SEC Coach of the Year three times – in 1985, 1987 and 1990.

In UGA's initial NCAA Tournament appearance in 1983, the Bulldogs advanced to the Final Four. Durham's Dogs defeated St. John's and North Carolina to win the East Regional before falling to eventual champion N.C. State.

Durham posted 633 career victories in 37 seasons, with 230 at Florida State and 106 at Jacksonville bookending his wins at Georgia. He was the first coach in Division I history to take two schools to their first Final Four and just the sixth to reach the Final Four at two schools.

Durham was inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame 1980, the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame in 1994, the Florida Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2009, the Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame in 2012 and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

ZIPPY MOROCCO



Anthony "Zippy" Morocco came to Athens from Youngstown, Ohio and became UGA's first All-American in basketball and one of the Bulldogs' best two-sport performers ever.

Morocco led the SEC in scoring in 1953 at 23.6 points per game on 590 points, breaking the existing SEC mark of 540 points by Kentucky's Cliff Hagan. He led the Bulldog football team in kickoff returns three consecutive years and in punt returns twice. He also was Georgia's top receiver in 1950 and averaged over 10 yards every time he touched the ball.

Morocco was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

ALEC KESSLER

Alec Kessler is widely regarded as one of the greatest student-athletes in the history of college athletics.

On the basketball court, he broke UGA's career scoring record, was named SEC Player of the Year and All-America in 1990 and was chosen No. 12 overall in the NBA Draft.

Kessler graduated with a 3.91 GPA while majoring in Microbiology. He was named men's basketball's Academic All-American of the Year in both 1989 and 1990 and was selected as the top Academic All-American for all sports in 1990.

Kessler was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015.

UGA CIRCLE OF HONOR

ALEC KESSLER – 2000
ZIPPY MOROCCO – 2002
JARVIS HAYES – 2020

The Circle of Honor is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

WILLIE ANDERSON

Atlanta native Willie Anderson blossomed into one of the college basketball's most diverse talents during his career at UGA. As a senior, Anderson averaged 16.7 points, 4.0 assists and 1.9 steals in 1988. He then earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team that summer.

Anderson was drafted No. 10 overall by San Antonio Spurs in the 1988 NBA Draft. He was a first-team All-NBA Rookie pick in 1989 and went on to play nine seasons in the NBA.

Anderson was enshrined in the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

Dominique Wilkins was the No. 3 overall selection by the Utah Jazz 1982 but was traded to Atlanta soon thereafter. Wilkins scored 21,369 of his 26,668 career points with the Hawks.

Kentavious Caldwell-Pope was the No. 8 overall pick and selected by the Detriot Pistons during the 2008 NBA Draft. Caldwell-Pope was Georgia's sixth, first-round draft pick and third since 1999.

Anthony Edwards was taken No. 1 overall by the Minnesota in 2020, a wise pick considering midway through his second season he became the fourth-youngest player to reach 2,500 points in league history.

Yante Maten went undrafted in 2018 but then chose to sign with the Miami Heat, which had no picks in the NBA Draft. A solid summer league performance earned Maten a two-way contract for 2018-19.

VERN FLEMING

1984 LOS ANGELES OLYMPIC GAMES

Vern Fleming, one of the finest Bulldog performers in history, made his mark at every level of competitive basketball. In 1984, he earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and played a large role in its Gold Medal-winning effort.

Fleming averaged 7.7 points during the Los Angeles Olympics, connecting on 51.1 percent of his shots. He also tallied 19 rebounds, 19 assists and nine steals.

Many consider the 1984 Americans as the finest amateur assemblage in the sport's history. The squad featured future Naismith Hall of Fame inductees Michael Jordan, Chris Mullin and Patrick Ewing.

From 1984-95, Fleming was a standout player for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

ANTHONY EDWARDS

2023 WORLD CUP & 2024 PARIS OLYMPICS

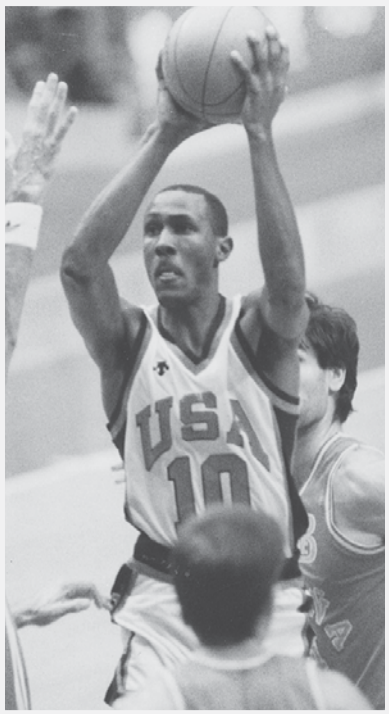
Anthony Edwards earned first-team all-tournament honors after he helped lead the USA to a fourth place finish at the 2023 FIBA World Cup in Manila. Edwards paced the USA in both scoring (18.9 ppg) and playing time (26.0 mpg) and also was the team's second-leading rebounder (4.6 rpg).

The following summer, Edwards played a pivotal role in the Americans' march to a fifth-straight Olympic Gold Medal in Paris.

The Atlanta native averaged 12.8 ppg, 2.8 rpg, 1.2 apg and a team-high 1.3 spg in 16.3 mpg. Edwards posted double-figure scoring totals in four of six Olympic outings, including a 26-point outburst against Puerto Rico which made him the youngest American (22 years old) to reach the 20-point plateau in Olympic competition since Dwight Howard in 2008.

WILLIE ANDERSON

1988 SEOUL OLYMPIC GAMES



Willie Anderson was star performer of the 1987 and 1988 Bulldogs, leading the '87 squad to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In 1988, Anderson was selected to the U.S. Olympic Team and in the same year was the first-round draft pick of the San Antonio Spurs. The Americans earned a bronze medal at the Seoul Olympics. Anderson averaged 5.0 points per game while pacing the squad by shooting 64.0 percent from the field. He also added 13 rebounds, six assists, six steals and four blocks.

Anderson returned from Seoul and played seven years for the Spurs before doing stints with Toronto, New York and Miami to round out his 10-year career in the league.

ADDITIONAL DOGS ON USA TEAMS

JUMAINE JONES

The 6-7 forward put an exclamation mark on his outstanding freshman season at Georgia by making the 12-man U.S. team for the 1998 Goodwill Games. Jones started all five games for the Americans and averaged 7.4 points for the Gold Medal winners.

TREY THOMPKINS

Thompkins played a key role in the U.S. winning the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship, averaging 10.6 points – second-best on the team – and 5.1 rebounds. A year later, he was named to the USA Select squad that trained alongside the USA National Team.

DAMIEN WILKINS

Wilkins started every contest in the 2015 Pan Am Games helped the Americans secure a Bronze Medal. He averaged 13.2 points while shooting 54.8 percent from the floor, 75.0 percent from 3-point range and 70.8 percent from the line.

YANTE MATEN

Yante Maten donned the Red, White & Blue for USA Basketball in 2020 for the National Team participating in qualifying for the 2021 Americup. Maten started both games and averaged 14.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in wins over The Bahamas and Mexico.

The first games in Georgia basketball history took place in the old YMCA building, located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton streets.

Since the inaugural season of 1905-06, Georgia basketball has called six different buildings home. These facilities have held a wide range of usefulness and pertinence to basketball. There's little doubt, however, that the Bulldogs' current home of Stegeman Coliseum is the best, most accommodating home they've ever had.

During the 1906-12 seasons, Georgia games were played in the old Athens YMCA building located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton Streets, currently the site of the Georgia Theater. The seating capacity for spectators was about 200, but it didn't seem to matter in those days. The earliest Bulldogs played their games in relative anonymity. Very rarely did the attendance reach full capacity at the YMCA building.

The building that is now called Memorial Hall on campus was the second gymnasium used by the Bulldog cagers. Construction on this facility began in 1910 and was to be built by the Alumni and the YMCA in a joint effort. The Alumni Association, however, eventually assumed full responsibility for the funds for its construction. Only in a partial state of completion, the team began to use the auditorium of "Alumni Hall," as it was called then, for its home games. Spectators viewed the games from a balcony which ran around the playing court, and the baskets were affixed to this balcony. In fact, the balcony became quite the advantage for Bulldog hoopsters, who had to tailor the arc of their shots to avoid hitting it.

Alumni Hall was used until about 1920, when the team moved to another on-campus location known as "The Octagon." It was located about where the current Main Library parking lot is, between the library and Jackson Street. Built in 1916 for $3,600 and for the purpose of accommodating summer-school functions, the Octagon was made of wood and sat approximately 1,400 people. The main problem for basketball was the lack of a heating system in this 8-sided building. There was also a four-foot opening around the wall up to the roof, with the roof overhanging to prevent rain from blowing in. The Octagon was used sparingly because of the absence of heat and also because of the ever-growing crowds.

Moss Auditorium, formerly the third floor of what became the Gallant-Belk store, was used for most of the games from 1920 until Woodruff Hall was completed. Crowds of up to 1,500 were estimated to have attended some of the home games.

Around this time, however, Coach Herman J. Stegeman was building quite a program. It became necessary for the basketball team to enjoy its own facility to accommodate the large crowds. Just before the completion of Woodruff Hall in 1925, the Bulldogs moved back into Alumni Hall, the construction of which had finally resumed after a fund-raising drive.

Excavation began on November 20, 1924 for the construction of Woodruff Hall, the building that was named for George and Harry Woodruff of Columbus, Ga. This facility was built in a central on-campus location, where the Journalism/Psychology building now stands, and had a seating capacity of 3,500. There was space enough for three basketball courts, with the main court measuring not quite the required length of 94 feet. Built at an estimated cost of $53,000, Woodruff Hall was officially dedicated by Dr. S.V. Sanford on Feb. 21, 1925 in a game where Georgia defeated Georgia Tech 34-24.

Woodruff Hall served as the Bulldogs' home for nearly 40 years. By the end of that stretch, however, many believed it had become the bane of the program.

Harbin "Red" Lawson was Georgia's coach for the last 13 years in Woodruff Hall. Publicly, he joked that it was the only basketball facility where wind direction and velocity affected his strategy. Other coaches, led by Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, despised playing games there. So dimly lit was Woodruff Hall that Auburn coach Joel Eaves turned out half the lights in his own gym, just to prepare for the Georgia game.

Eventually, Eaves became Athletic Director at Georgia. Two years into his tenure, in 1964, the Bulldogs dedicated their current home as the Georgia Coliseum. In 1996, it was given its current name of Stegeman Coliseum in honor of the man that first lifted the Georgia basketball program into prominence.

Over its 50 years, Stegeman Coliseum has hosted its share of memories, and also extracurricular functions. Operated in a co-op agreement with the University's agricultural college, the Bulldogs once shared the building with various rodeos and other livestock shows. And in 1996, the world's sporting attention turned to Athens, where Stegeman played host to volleyball and rhythmic gymnastics competitions at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.
